UNKNOWN MAN USED TOURNIQUET SKILLFULLY

MRS. ELEANOR MOODY: Points to the spot in front of her house where the leg of Aunchman was found. It had been severed at the hip.

An unknown man, who, it seems, just happened to be passing, is credited by Salem Street residents with the saving of the life of one of two motorcyclists, in an early Monday morning accident on Salem Street.

An Andover man lost his life, and a Tewksbury man was critically injured in the accident, apparently a head-on one, with a Tewksbury motorist, Anthony P. Sbraccia of 39 Colonial Drive. Sbraccia was driving a 1971 Oldsmobile. The accident was at 12:26 am.

The unknown man applied a tourniquet to the leg of Donald E. Florence, 28, or 80 Maureen Drive, Tewksbury. Neighbors said he saved the life of Florence. He was assisted by Mrs. Patricia MacDougall, of 36 Salem Street.

The accident was in front of the Charles Glavin home, at 87 Salem Street. Mrs. Eleanor Moody, who lives across the street, told the Town Crier that she was awakened by the shouts of "They've cut off my leg" or similar words. Her first thought was that there was a gang fight, and she hesitated to step outside.

She found Florence by the side of the road, and the unknown man applying a tourniquet. When she remarked on his skill he said "I am accustomed to this", which led her to believe he had been a Medic in the Army or Navy.

She and Mrs. Glavin both related that the young man had said the auto "was coming straight for us", and that the auto driver had said about the same thing about the motorcycle.

John Aunchman, 32, of 48 Blood Road Andover, was dead on arrival at the Choate Memorial Hospital in Woburn. His leg had been severed at the hip, and was found in front of the Moody home, perhaps forty or fifty feet from the site of the accident.

The leg of Florence, severed at the knee, was not to be found at first. After a search it was found in one of the headlight sections of the car.

Florence, son of a Reading family, in critical condition in the Choate Memorial Hospital. Wilmington Police have not yet completed their investigation.

ALBERT E. KITCHENER JR.
NAMED TO "OUTSTANDING YOUNG MEN OF AMERICA"

Albert E. Kitchener Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Kitchener of 116 Aldrich Road has been selected as one of the Outstanding Young Men of America.

A graduate of Wilmington High (1956) he attended Union College in Kentucky, and has made a career of teaching, much of it in foreign countries.

He taught in England in 1964-65, in Spain in 1965-67, in Turkey 1967-70, and in Zwiebrucken Germany since 1970.

Albert has traveled extensively as a result of his career. He has spent a Christmas in Jerusalem, and saw sights in India for which he could not click the lens of his camera. He was attending the Russian Ballet, for the first time, and had to be taken out for an emergency appendectomy.

This summer he is touring the colorful Ionian Islands, part of Greece - Corfu, Mykonos, Delos, and the Island of Thora, reputed lately to have been the site of Atlantis.

Outstanding Young Men of America is sponsored by leading civic and professional organizations and published annually by the U.S. Jaycees. Qualifications considered for inclusion are a young man's service to others, his professional excellence, his business advancement, civic and professional recognition, and charitable activities.

Should he be awarded the Golden Pea Spoon?

HE DOESN'T FEEL GUILTY AT ALL: Paul Morrice picking peas, in front of the south wall of his home, at 109 Middlesex Avenue.

Can a man grow peas against the South Wall of his home, and then collect the wholly mythical Golden Pea Spoon from the Town Crier?

Every year the Town Crier has such an award. There is no monetary consideration, just, more or less, fun.

The first Wilmington home gardener (professional farmers not accepted) who can supply his family with a dinner of home grown peas, each year, gets the Golden Pea Spoon. It is, as has been stated, wholly mythical. It has now been given out each year for sixteen years.

Traditionally, in New England, the Fourth of July dinner was Fresh Salmon and Peas. The salmon was to be caught in the local river, and the peas to be from the back yard garden.

Some New Englanders have, on occasion, had peas by Bunker Hill Day - June 17th.

This year Paul Morrice of 109 Middlesex Avenue had his first peas on the day before Bunker Hill Day - June 16th.

But those peas were grown against the South Wall of his home. Is that fair?

Rick Williams, environmentalist candidate for Congress

Richard Williams of Lowell, Democratic Candidate for Congress, has been in Wilmington on several occasions during the past week. He was the Democratic nominee for Congressman in the Fifth Congressional District in 1970, and at that time he received 70,000 votes.

Mr. Williams, an Environmentalist, is the Director of the Environmental Systems Division of Urban Systems Research and Engineering Inc. of Cambridge.

If elected to Congress he would be the only Environmentalist in Congress, and one of two Congressmen with a scientific background.

He describes the situation in this part of Middlesex County as being most critical, in terms of jobs, for the future. His special expertise as a scientist, and, and someone who has worked in technical industry will help him, he feels, to be the proper person to represent the area in Congress, and to have the Federal Government utilize the capabilities already developed in the area in solving the domestic problems of this country. It is, he feels, the only way to bring back jobs to the District.

He has been a consultant to the White House and to Federal Agencies on Environmental matters. He was project manager at Tech Ops and Itek Corporation for five years.

Gloria Witter killed in Woburn Crash

Miss Gloria Witter, 19, of 48 Clark Street was killed in an accident on Winn Street, in Woburn, Friday. She was declared dead on arrival at Choate Memorial Hospital.

Miss Witter, who has lived in Wilmington less than a year, was the driver of the car. Also killed in the accident was one year old Melissa Borelli of Burlington. Her mother, a passenger in the car, was admitted to the hospital suffering from multiple cuts and bruises.

The car which Miss Witter was driving was in collision with a truck of the National Casket Company. The driver of the truck, Edward Bangs of East Boston, was released from the hospital Friday evening after being treated for injuries.

Witnesses told the police that the car Miss Witter was driving crossed the center line of the street and swerved into the truck. The truck was struck near the driver's door, and following the collision it overturned.

CRUSADERS & SWORDSMEN ANNUAL COMPETITION TOMORROW EVE

The Wilmington Crusaders & Swordsmen Drum & Bugle Corps will sponsor their Annual Competition, this year at Cawley Stadium in Lowell on Friday, June 23rd beginning at 6:30 pm.

The line-up for the program includes five Class C drum corps, four Class B corps and four drill teams.

This year, for the first time in the Eastern Mass. Asso., under whose auspices this contest will be held, bands have been welcomed into the competitive circle.

In the Class A Division this year, the corps will present such well known bands as St. Anthony's, St. Ann's the Royal Jades, Immaculate Conception and the Sacred Heart Band.

This year there will be something for everyone, drum corps fans, band fans, or both.

Associate in Science in Law Enforcement

Robert N. Stewart of 1 Forest Street, a patrolman in the Wilmington Police Department, received his associate in science degree in law enforcement from Northeastern University in ceremonies held on June 18th at Boston Garden.

Officer Stewart was one of more than 4,400 graduates at Northeastern's annual commencement exercises.

He will continue his studies at Northeastern for his bachelor's degree in law enforcement.

Officer Stewart is married to the former Lydia Silva of Acushnet.

Rep. Fred F. Cain

Mutual Aid for Police is now Law

A new law, recently enacted, has a Mutual Aid Program for Police Departments, as has had the Fire Departments of Massachusetts for several years.

The law was sponsored by Rep. Fred F. Cain of Wilmington and it states that municipal police departments may be authorized to respond to calls for aid from other municipalities. The bill was enacted into law two weeks ago.

The new law is entitled Chapter 220 of the Acts of 1972. It allows towns and cities to enter into agreements whereby mutual aid programs may be agreed upon to increase the capability of the police departments, to protect the lives, safety and property of the municipalities. It also deals with the problems of expenses incurred in such a program.

Rep. Cain, who represents a ward in Woburn as well as the Town of Wilmington had asked for a more specific bill regarding compensation, including "in whole or in part" compensation for the towns or cities. The bill as submitted had also asked for benefits for police, or their widows, who were injured or killed in such a mutual aid.

This specific language, Rep. Cain notes, was not in the bill when it was passed.

SPOTLIGHTERS PLAN SUMMER THEATER

The Wilmington Spotlighters have completed plans for their summer theater work. The small theater group will be doing one-act plays and a workshop. The culminating presentation will be a one-act play, time and place to be announced later.

The season will last from July 6th to August 7th, with emphasis on acting techniques and make-up.

Glenn Cooper is candidate for Congress

Glenn Cooper of Lowell, a 32 year old economist has recently become the ninth candidate in the Fifth District's Democratic Congressional primary election.

A former US Senate staff member who has worked with the aeronautics and space sciences committee and the juvenile delinquency subcommittee, he has for the last several years been a financial consultant specializing in export markets for textiles and high technology items.

Mr. Cooper is married and has three children. He is a graduate of Southern Methodist University and the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy (Tufts University). He serves as a director of Camp Paul, a public summer day camp for retarded children in Eastern Mass., as well as a director of the Fellowship-in-Israel for Arab-Jewish Youth.

SERGEANT CHARLES ELLSWORTH (Right) was among the first to congratulate Patrolman Stewart on his degree in law enforcement. Sgt. Ellsworth is also a graduate of Northeastern University's same course.

Seniors: The Yankees and Tigers are tied for first after victories of last week. The Yankees rode the pitching of Mike Barcellos to an 11-4 win over the Orioles.

The Tigers tipped the Orioles, 4-2, as Jim Peters struck out five of six batters in saving the win for Bob Reid.

Ken Peters hurled the Tigers past the Red Sox, 7-3. The Red Sox gained an 8-3 triumph over the Indians, with Steve Coville the winning pitcher.

The Angels widened their first place lead, beating the Yankees, 7-1, as Tom Gracia tossed a one-hitter and Dave Rounds belted his third seasonal homer.

Meanwhile, the Twins edged the Red Sox, 3-1 as John Milano out-pitched Richie Fiorillo, but lost 5-4 to the White Sox.

In other action the Dolphins beat the Marlins on home runs by Steve Brown and Louis Theriault, 14-4, and the Seals nudged the Sharks, 11-10.

North Farm: The Owls, unbeaten in winning the first half, lost 2 of 3, beating the Hawks, 11-6, and losing to the Falcons, 4-3 and to the Crows, 11-4.

Suburban pony League

Wildcats: Coach Everett's boys won 2 out of 3 outings recently and are now sporting a 3-4 record in the Western sector of the Suburban Pony League.

Last Wednesday Doug Stewart tossed a five hitter at the Reading Y's Men as his teammates scored six runs on four hits in a 6-1 triumph. Dan Burns turned a fine dual performance (2 singles and 3 rbi's) offensively productive and started a double play in the fifth inning by backhanding a ground ball going towards second base (he plays second) stepping on the bag and firing to first to double up hitter, a truly outstanding performance.

Receiving assists on the twelve markers were Gracia and Carlin with three each; Paul Sullivan, Greg Moulton, Tighe and Marasco with a pair each and Tom Bavota one. Paul Gilson and George Ravagni combined for the shut out with some fine net minding.

The boys have only two games remaining between them and the championship. Tonight they face Reading in a 7:40 pm face off at the Youth Ice Arena, and on Saturday No. Reading will provide the opposition at 2:10 pm. Reading with an excellent 9-2-1 slate should provide the biggest obstacle between Wilmington and the title.

Spring Hockey

Wilmington's Pee Wee A skaters maintained their hold on first place last weekend with an easy 12-0 win over Tewksbury, extending their seasonal record to 11-1 and current winning streak to nine.

Mike Carlin, Paul Sullivan and Bill Blaisdell scored two goals each while Jay Walden, Steve Foley, Ron Marasco, Brian Tighe, Tom Gracia and Ray Robson scored one each. The Foley Marasco and Tighe goals all came in the first period while Coach Rossi's pucksters were short-handed.

Long cords are a nuisance. They get tangled and knotted. They're in the way, and yet you never can reach them when you want them.

The solution to the cord problem is a simple one however. Take up the excess cord and twist it back and forth until you have it gathered in your hand. Wrap it with one of the wire ties from a loaf of bread or other food product.

No more tangled cords!

The simple way to find all your building materials is to come to Sweetey Home Courtesy Center, 615 Main St. 658-2051. Nu-Wood Ceilings, Anderson, Pella and West-Pine Combination wood windows and doors and American combination aluminum windows and doors are in stock. Hours: Daily 8 am to 5 pm and Fridays from 8 am to 9 pm.

Charge with Bank Americard or Master Charge.

Helpful Hint: Record the last calling for your major appliances in a file, and keep it close at hand to maintain all motors in good running order.

Charging Bunker Hill

It is a pleasure to be able to record in this column that Wilmington patriots have again assisted in repelling the dastardly British, at a place called Bunker Hill, in Charlestown.

This is the third time in three years that the Wilmington Minute Men have fought gallantly with their comrades from the Town of Charlestown, and they have also earned another battle streamer for their guidon.

Wilmington was present at the first battle, now nearly 200 years ago, and perhaps it was there that the Wilmington company earned the tradition of being the next to last to leave the redoubt, on the third charge of the British Red Coats.

The Charlestown Company, of course, is last to leave. All told there are 19 Colonial companies that take part in the annual battle.

Somebody could write a book about it.

Now it is forbidden to have bayonets, and it is forbidden to have ramrods, at the time of the third charge. The boys sometimes forget, and don't get those ramrods drawn, and the British Red Coats, after the battle, indignantly allege that those Yankees are going to kill somebody, some day, if they aren't careful.

Today, of course, the real efforts are made after the battle, with the Charlestown Militia as hosts over the hot steaks for British and Yank alike.

The Wilmington Minute Men, it must be recorded, have one mysterious duty in that last chapter of the yearly encounter.

Wilmington has a keg, that it guards zealously, that is - until a thirsty soldier wants to partake. Then it matters not if that soldier is in the near mufti of the Colonials, or the Red Lobster Back of their British Cousins.

Wilmington men could always be good hosts.

That Wayward Bus

One can sympathize with the Board of Directors of the MBTA. They have an operation which should be fostered. They have devoted much time and attention to the improving of service by the trains and busses under their command. They are running a losing money proposition.

Theirs today is an emergency proposition. If they do not get more money they will be out of business, and it can be argued that many people in many communities will suffer hardships.

Existing transportation, they say, will have to stop after July 15th. May this column take this opportunity to gently remind those Directors that the Town of Wilmington voted over a year ago to stop the running of the bus that goes to the Tewksbury line, and there turns around and returns towards Boston - nearly empty in both directions?

It could be a savings of money (about $100,000) for the taxpayers of Wilmington, and it could also be a savings of money for the MBTA.

ON FOURTH QUARTER HONOR ROLL AT AUSTIN

Fifteen Wilmington students have been named to the fourth quarter honor roll at Austin Prep in Reading.

Catching Up

Conlin to John. Actually there were several pieces of paper floating around last week. His name had been correctly set up as Robert, and was then changed.

The Town Crier's profound apologies to Robert and the error is hereby corrected.

Then there is the Jamesway Studio. It is customary to give a photographer credit, but the Jamesway had just too many pictures of individuals, last week.

Alice Papaliolios is really Gung Ho

With a pencil Mrs. Papaliolios records her thoughts, as a microphone records the words of Attorney Joseph Courtney, at the Hatch Act hearing in the Mildred Rogers School, Tuesday evening. The tend of the microphone, too, was a part of her duties during the hearing.

Mrs. Alice Papaliolios, of the Wilmington Conservation Commission is a lady with a Purpose. Her husband, of Greek extraction, is a teacher at Harvard University. They live in the farmhouse near the Glen Road School which was once called The Elms, home of the Christian Neilson family of fifty years ago. The lady is very much interested in Conservation, and as soon as possible after she had moved to Wilmington she became a part of the Conservation Commission. She takes an active part in watching streams, excavations and such things, and it is joked that she will come running at the sound of running water. Wilmington is going to hear more of Mrs. Papaliolios, in these days of Ecology.

A new pond off Ballardvale Street

A small stream, which flows down the westerly side of the hill between Andover Street and Ballardvale Street has been dammed by the Service Warehouse, for the purpose of creating a fire reservoir. It is located where Wilmington, Tewksbury and Andover meet, and might possibly be called a Tri-Pond. One Million gallons of water is the capacity.

The pond had to be created because of the lack of water pressure on the Wilmington water mains. It is the second such reservoir that has been made recently by industrial firms off Ballardvale Street.

Les Morash, the president of the Service Warehouse Company, and of affiliated industries, invited quite a group to watch the testing of the pond, on June 15th.

The group included insurance officials, and officials of the Wilmington Fire Department. Tests were made with the pumps which are a part of the utility, and four fire hoses were in operation at one time.

Among those present were Richard MacGowan of the Andover Savings Bank; Raymond Fitzmaurice, architect and builder; John Colgan of W.S. Security; William McGovern of the R.H. White Construction Co.; C. Nightengale and Richard Contorelli of Factory Mutual; Robert Purcell of Fairbanks-Morse; William Koenig of Moulton Electric; F. Mader of the Insurance Service Office of Massachusetts; and Mrs. Morash and daughter, Linda, in addition to L.C. Keller, Vice President of the W.F. Buckley Co.

WHAT WOULD A BACKWARD PUSH DO! Les Morash and friends stand with backs to the new pond, as they observe fire fighting tests, at the Service Warehouse.

Letters

Concerned Citizens:

This letter is to call your attention to the deficiency budget! Failure to release the budget to the legislature will involve the closing of 90 schools, educating hundreds of our deaf, blind, aphasic, emotionally disturbed and physically handicapped children.

Our objective at this time is to persuade the governor to release to the legislature for passage the deficiency budget of $3.4 million submitted by the Department of Special Education.

The Massachusetts State Legislature has expressed willingness to work with the administrators of these schools to fund all programs for these children. However the governor's office of administration and finance, due to revenue problems, is unwilling to commit itself. The fact is that $100 million of deficiency funds have been allotted for other budgets. Are we asking too much for $3.4 million more for our children in special need?

If the governor does not release this budget the results will be an abundance of problems to already understaffed and overcrowded special education classes in our public schools.

I am the mother of 2 handicapped youngsters. One boy, Garv, is deaf. He attends the Boston School for the Deaf, one of the best of its kind for handling these problems.

My daughter, Elaine attends Little People's School for handicapped children. Her problems are many. At birth her doctors gave us no hope of her ever doing normal things as her six brothers and sisters do. Through the help of many dedicated teachers at her school, she can now walk.

talk, hold objects in her hands, etc. The teachers are many and dedicated and include prominent persons who give generously of their time at the school to help these children.

Garv and Elaine need these schools for their life's development. Can we deny them their special education?

Please help our needy children by writing directly to the governor's office in behalf of the parents and special children requesting the immediate release of this deficiency budget.

Gratefully,
Mrs. Russell Catania

Dear Citizens of Wilmington:

On the 22nd and 29th of April the annual Chamber of Commerce Clean-Up Drive was conducted as scheduled. From all reports, the drive was a success. Thanks to the cooperation of many volunteer groups and individuals.

A listing of 16 geographic eye-scores, supplied by Bob Palmer, Superintendent of the Wilmington Highway Department, were visited by generous volunteers.

The results were startling. In conjunction with the men of the Highway Department, who worked side by side with volunteer groups, a remarkable transformation of a good portion of the town was affected.

I only hope that the enthusiastic spirit of civic pride and concern for our community as demonstrated has ignited a similar concern in everyone.

With the advent of summer, it should be the concern of all in Wilmington to preserve that clean, polished look for our community.

But thank you especially for the lesson in civic pride and concern you taught by volunteering your services to the Chamber of Commerce Clean-Up Drive for 1972.

Very truly yours,
Bernard Brady, Pres.
Chamber of Commerce

Denise Carter is Bride

On Sunday June 4th, Denise Jean Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Carter of 827 Main St. became the bride of Arthur D. Nuttle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Attilio Nuttle of Ashburton Ave., Woburn.

The bride, given in marriage by her father was radiant in a white satin A-line gown featuring an empire waist line and bishop sleeves. Her round collar was studded with seed pearl insets and her chapel train was of chantilly lace. She wore a wide brim hat of matching lace and carried a colonial bouquet of daisies, pink roses and baby's breath.

Miss Sharon Arbing served as maid of honor.

Misses Linda Natoli, Jean Nuttle and Roberta Taylor and Mrs. Joseph McCarroll acted as bridesmaids. The lovely little flower girl was Patricia Stevenson.

Say now - How do ya dig this crazy weather? Go to work with longjohns and when ya come home all ya need is a bikini. That's really NE. Personally, this Gal has had summer enuf. Ya can turn that oven off - 'cept on Fridays, that is - until Fall anyway.

Roger Stone of Mx Ave is making a remarkable recovery, the news is. Rog of course, is the lad that was hit by the car on Church St. and stayed in that coma for so long and you all put that through line to the Man Upstairs into action for this Gal - just like with Charlie Cushing - and it really worked - just like with Charlie. You're a great group! So now Roger is in speech therapy and doing well. He wants you all to know he appreciates your prayers and would like to hear from to help while away the time. He also would like to see his friends (That's a date, kids, - now that school's out!) So - let's go there guys and dolls - Cards to Roger Stone, Kennedy Memorial Hospital, Brighton. Thanx. Knew you would!

Johnnie Baker of Mystic Ave. is out of the service. He and Wendy (Atkinson) the bride, are living in Lowell at present. Welcome back to the Strip - Johnnie - and thanks for the info there Lennie Dobens - Ye Olde Faithful insurance fella!

While She thinks of it, this Gal wants to say hi to Dave Walsh down in those Mars Islands - or on sea tour whichever - and tell him She's waiting for a letter here, Dave - with the news (Bub's now with you, Dave!).

One of our own WHS 72 grads will be matriculating at Northern Essex this fall in Haverhill. Lauren Woller of Main St., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Woller, will be taking Medical Records Courses. Good Luck Lauren and God Bless!

Met Johnnie Gentile of Butters Row this week and he is one of our unique people - altho new to Willie - he will fit well - because John just graduated from Embalmers School. He's presently employed at Tufts Med - but that's not all - he plays the sax - also. Hey - Bill Cavanaugh wen you going to match that one - a sax playing undertaker - Bet that's a first too - Congratulations Johnnie, and welcome aboard.

TOWN CRIER OF WILMINGTON, THURSDAY, JUNE 22, 1972

This Chick trusts you won't get those jobs mixed up - at least until Her funeral - where the Clan threatens her with dancing - and it's all right with Her! In fact She'd encourage that.

The Melander Group says hi to all of their friends here - all the way from St. Pete where their shenanigans are as busy as the Clans. Hi Kids - my love to you all - will get with the pen shortly. But the sentence hasn't run out yet. The picture is cute and for gosh shakes you guys - lay off the broken bones and bruises - It's a long life (Thanks again for that bit on Doc Foster!).

Jean Cleary and Sally McIver will be co-captains on the football cheerleading - the gals are Sheila Cavanaugh, Robin Jensen, Kathie Howlett, Donna Mullens, Jean Novak, Wendy Wiberg, Mervyn Clark (commonly known as Bunch or No 3 daughter), Lynn Murphy, Paula Kavanagh and Beth Krugall. Subs are Andrea Silverman and Barbara Zaverson. Should be a good peppy and cute mini-skirted fall and that should get those land moving there. Coach!

Notes from that paper napkin, and this Gal means that one - literally. On Wednesday evening last She was the guest of Eddie Sullivan and his fair lady at the Wilmington-Tewksbury Elks Orientation Night where 40 new members were introduced to the Elks. Let me tell you, this lass was really impressed. Besides meeting many wonderful folks, she saw a national movie of all the philanthropic work that the Elks do - helping crippled children, sponsoring Boy Scout Troops, donating blood, etc., plus scholarships to deserving students which started all this - at Willie's graduation. The Elks awarded 2 scholarships at WHS and 2 at Tewksbury that day - and that evening which was Flag Day they presented Eagle Scout Awards. One of which went to Dana Danielle of Kiernan Ave. Dana is the third Danielle lad to receive the award. Some family, that one. Congratulations to those boys. Officers of the Elks are - Tom Burris Exalted Ruler, Tony Capucci, Past Exalted Ruler, our own Eddie Sullivan, Chaplain, Arthur Griswold, Esteemed leading Knight, Ernie Crispo looked great and happy in his apron behind that chicken and Eddie Forest filled her full of philosophies while were were singing to Larry's (D) Piano Roll Blues. Had great fun and learned a whole lot there. Thanks for that hospitality Sullivan and keep up those good works. Elks!

And that encounter gave us

Gal a new line of thought. So she spoke to the curlyheaded manager at the Plaza about increasing the scholarship amount and he said "just write me a letter, Nance, and we'll work on the Big Boy" and then She met Frank Sferazza in the parking lot, who is some lad. (His boy received 3 awards at graduation including the Elks and Sons of Italy). However, Frank awarded 3 for the Boosters and told this lass he was out to increase those this year. So - now mebbe - just mebbe - she can go to work on those for another year - if there's no rule against an SC member doing that thing for the kids!

Congratulations to Evelyn Spear of Burlington Ave. - she just finished her freshman year at Framingham State and was on the Dean's List for both semesters. Evelyn is an English Major.

Also congratulations to the Wilmington Crusaders who placed third in a Class A Competition held in Burlington on June 11th.

And to Mr. and Mrs. George Pike of Westdale Avenue who celebrated their thirty-eighth wedding anniversary last week - understand George spent most of his anniversary chopping wood. A large Maple tree in their yard had blown over on the house and had to be moved - anniversary or no. Also a tip of the old fedora to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pearson of High St., on the event of their fiftieth - Wow!

May and Bill Anderson, formerly of Westdale Ave., now of West Saveria Park, Md., were in Willie recently visiting friends and relatives - they left on Sunday for a vacation in Sweden. May and Bill are grandparents now.

Well, John Elia may have 5000 lady bugs in his garden and maybe they'll do his roses some good, but so far, all he can see is that he's got thousands of extra birds, feasting away - and I heard of an even better Father's Day present! Al Kasabowski of Laite Rd., also an avid gardener, got a load of cow manure from one of his kids! Very thoughtful, useful and rare. Now, I remember the day Willie had plenty of cows, but now in order to show our grandchildren where milk comes from, we have to take them to the zoo to see a cow! Progress is the name of the game.

Understand (of all the ridiculous things!) there is good news in the cemetery this week. Louie Nolan, affectionately known as "Old Reliable" foreman of that group is expected back on the job Monday am. Louie had an operation a while back and has been out of work for a couple of months.

Bill Frost of Lowell St. (Woodworker Extraordinaire) will be one of the featured craftsmen at the Seventh Northeast Craft Fair in Bennington, Vermont, from June 30th to July 2nd - good for you Bill - nice to have Willie represented there!

Josie Fortunata is in charge of a Yard Sale for the Sons of Italy Friday, at American Legion Hall. Hopefully, an outside event, but if it rains - inside. Proceeds will be used for the Sons of Italy charities.

Would the lady who called regarding Sgt. Warren Callahan's paper please contact the Crier office again?

Meanwhile back at the Hut: Things are livening up. Vacation is here and those work lists are coming out. That No. 2 Daughter turns 21 this week and the Clan doth gather for the Big Do this weekend. And she made it half-way, folks - and they say the first 100 years is the hardest. So should be on the "down hill" run from now on - for the second thousand!

Doesn't look like she's getting loose very soon, but cheer up, she'll see you on the Strip yet this summer, provided she can keep resisting that temptation of going on North on 93 in the sunrise.

And the word this week, she likes - "Sometimes a man of action is just a fellow - or gal who put both of his - or her feet in hot water" Right on!!

Meanwhile Luv Ya - Wow!

Programs for Senior Citizens

Wilmington has its share of people who have passed the age of 60. Some are members, for instance, of the Golden Age Club ($1 a year). Some are participants of the Senior Citizens Program. Some are residents of the Old Age Housing Project, on of the people beyond 60, nor does it mean that there are people in one organization and not necessarily in others. There does seem to be some divergent viewpoints.

The Board of Selectmen, a week ago, were visited by eleven members of the Golden Age Club. President Angus MacFeeley was their spokesman. The members pointed out that this is a sum of money ($500) allocated by the town of a Senior Citizens Council, which is another program, and not a part of those listed before.

The visitors wanted to discuss the Senior Citizens Council, to which members are named by the Board of Selectmen. There

GUS MacFeeley: And Golden Ages, speaking to the Board of Selectmen, a week ago. Mr. MacFeeley, the president, said that some of the Golden Ages should be on the Council for Aging. 'We like recreation like everyone else'.

which this year, so far, has donated up to $500.

There was a Christmas Party at the Baptist Church, and a luncheon at Villanova Hall in February which were in part a contribution of Rotary. Other functions have been self supporting. A barbecue, for instance, is being planned for July for the Senior Citizens. Neither the site nor the date have yet been named.

About 18 of the Senior Citizens will be leaving next Monday for a two week stay at the Salvation Army Camp in Sharon. The town is paying for a part of the expenses, and Rotary is paying for the bus.

The Town of Tewksbury happens to have a very good program. Mr. Robert MacDonald, himself a Senior Citizen, is the Director of the Council for the Aging in that town. He was the speaker at the luncheon for Senior Citizens, in February.

His message was that the Senior Citizens should get up such a program for themselves, so that they could have a say on what is going on. In the background, ladies who contributed to the activities included Mrs. Anne Linnehan of Radcliffe Road, and Mrs. Barbara Larson. Mrs. Larson is the Senior Citizen Co-ordinator for Wilmington, in the Wilmington Recreation Department.

JOANNE CUNNINGHAM: (right) of Beacon Street and Diane Phalen of Woburn, new employees of S.S. Pierce, set up the door prize display at recent Pierce Open House to dedicate their institutional food warehouse and headquarters along 128 in Woburn, New England's largest such facility. The occasion attracted many food brokers, restaurateurs and institutional food buyers from the entire New England area.

can be from 7 to 11 members on that council. The Golden Age group felt that some of the members should be of their organization, and also felt that the terms of office should be staggered, for a continuity of the programs.

The $500 allocated by the town is not the only money spent on activities for Senior Citizens. Members of the various churches have made small donations, and the churches from time to time loan the use of their facilities for Senior Citizen activities. But the big donor seems to be the Rotary Club of Wilmington

You are made up of cells of many different sizes, shapes and functions. As has been said before, these cells are the building blocks of your body.

The period when your cells may need the most fuel is during the period of your most rapid growth, for instance during adolescence or for women during pregnancy.

But even the mature body must never stop replenishing the fuel it needs to grow. Cells continue to wear out as long as you live.

The trick is to get enough of the most necessary fuels.

Continuing weekly, both the Crusaders and Swordsmen will take part in the Eastern Mass. and Mayflower Asso. contests.

PITTSBURGH PAINTS
SUN-PROOF
Latex HOUSE PAINT

Your house stretches and shrinks with variations in temperature and humidity. It's the constant expansion and contraction that most often causes house paint to work loose, crack and peel. The flexibility of Sun-Proof® Latex House Paint enables it to resist the stresses and strain that ruptures an otherwise sound paint film. It resists cracking, peeling and flaking... lasts longer and saves you money! Come in today for a free color chart.
